

How are you feeling? Pretty good, I hope. Ok, now that I've got your attention, go ahead and scan these QR codes. [To easily scan a QR code on an iPhone, open your rear-facing camera & point at the code. A notification bar will appear at the top of your screen asking if you want to open the link tap it to be taken directly to the link!] If you're not into QR codes, you can access here: <https://anti-racist.tyi> + <http://ptw-guide>

If you find Jasmine's packet useful, you can contribute to the author through the following channels (also listed in the packet): @smoothjasmine on Venmo $smoothjasm on Cash App jasmitche@gmail.com on PayPal

The QR codes will take you to an Anti-Racist Packet compiled by Jasmine Mitchehl and the FANTASY WORLD MASTER LIST OF RESOURCES ON HOW TO DISMANTLE SYSTEMIC RACISM by Pata Borya. These two vastly comprehensive documents are filled with lists and links compiling all kinds of resources to aid in Anti-Racist work. They include (and credit) much of the work that many others have already done, and are both great places to track down that thing you saw somewhere, but can't remember where, or what exactly it was...

This zine was made by A. Piro in the year 2020 using Procreate on iPad pro, with a limited palette of red, green, and blue.
