

that UFO no ship
a homegrown plasma being pulsing, winking, gone

stratosphere grows things
higher than you think

sentient clouds
shape shift
to tease the ground bound stratosphere holds life

above our norms others thrive they descend to spy

mistaken as clouds
sky entities reach down
peek at us and blee

Stratospherics

curious glimpses
skies above not as below stratosphere shields things

Alkua Lezli Hope

transmit consciousness
eyebeam captures curious stratosphere fauna
