

and then it was August, with the weather still warm, and we had plenty of rain

but the tree had started dropping its leaves while the jewel weed was just blooming

I first noticed the leaves turning red in the middle of the summer and I realized that this awful year had spread to the trees.

Stressed Buckeye

Studio of Exhaustion

Clifton Meador 2020